Mr. Cleveland

We, the class of 1940, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our Headmaster, Mr. Cleveland, whose vision and fine administrative activities have opened to us so many opportunities, both educational and extra-curricula. We only hope that in years to come we may prove ourselves worthy of the splendid advantages which he has so labored to provide.

Dedication

We can in no more fitting manner express our deep affection and sincere respect for Mr. Bliss than by dedicating to him this, our year book. His untimely death in the early part of the year struck deep into the hearts of all who have known and loved this fine and noble man. Our sense of bereavement will not soon be erased; we shall cherish in our hearts forever the memory of Mr. Bliss.

MR. CHESTER BLISS
Assistant Headmaster

Prologue

Station CHLS, 1940 Kilocycles on the dial of Time, is making its final broadcast. We have all listened faithfully to these instructive programs for four years. As we find ourselves about to tune in on foreign networks, and follow the advice of unfamiliar announcers, we realize how well our own radio station has entertained us. We are sure to pause now and then between the programs of life to dream of these happy days; may this Year Book, the electrical recording of the highlights of these CHLS broadcasts, help to make our memories more vivid.

CLASS POEM

Here as we stand upon the friendly shores
 Of these past years, and look ahead, full loth
 To leave their kindly haven and to brave
 The perils and the dangers of the tides
 Of future life; how are we sad, and yet,
 How are we happy to recall their joys!
 Here have we learned to dream, here learned to roam
 In realms of gold, guided by friendly hands;
 Here, too, received the greatest gift of all,
 The gift of gifts—the love of friend for friend;
 Here, felt the thirst for learning that propelled
 The ancient sages on their patient way
 To Wisdom; and we here have gleaned for life
 A host of happy memories whose charm
 Will cheer us all our days.

But now we go

As many more before us too have gone,
 And many more will go, and leave behind
 The sweet serenity of guided youth;
 But as we go the voice of these past years,
 The years wherein our mettle has been proved,
 Speaks, and we hear with calm and high resolve:
 "These years have weighed you in the scale of youth
 And found you worthy; go then in your strength
 And fearless face the fortunes of the years;
 Go, gain with confidence and higher faith
 Your place in life and ultimate reward!"

Bertha Humez, '40.

Class Song

Here, youth's conquest made,
Stand we undismayed,
To the future courage bringing
With a battle challenge ringing,
For the coming years,
Full of hopes and fears,
Sighs and singing!

Yet the gentle past
From which we part at last
We leave with love and tender blessing,
Debt and gratitude confessing;
Keep we each dear friend
To our long life's end,
Love confessing!

O Thou Who in Thy might
Dost show the path of right,
Be Thou still our Lord, and guiding
Lead us to Thy joy abiding,
And in years to come
Be our Help and Home,
Strength providing;
Thy strength, great God, our King!

Bertha Humez,, '40.

CLASS HISTORY

DIARY FOR 1936-1937

Dear Diary :

Today we entered for the first time the longed for portals of Cambridge High and Latin School. Gosh, that place was big, and there were a thousand other freshmen there! The words headmaster and dean and master fell on our ears with an unfamiliar ring, but after a little while they became clearly defined in the persons of Mr. Cleveland, Miss Russell, and Mr. Downey, who helped to ease us into the routine of studies, studies, classes, studies, and homework. Finally we received our last report cards of the year. What magic was contained in that little word "sophomore" scrawled across the face of the card.

DIARY FOR 1937-1938

Dear Diary :

Returned to the ole joint after passing a carefree summer. Secure in out lofty positions as second year men, we were able to strut about putting the lowly freshmen in their rightfully unimportant places by totally disregarding them. We were somewhat more sure of ourselves then because it was not necessary for us to go around asking the whereabouts of such rooms as forty-three, forty-five, and seventy-one. We no longer trembled when summoned for a chat with Mr. Bliss or Miss Driscoll, for we knew them now as friends and advisers and not as taskmasters. Toward the end of the year we discovered the folly of doing homework regularly, and we were able to divert our attention to more important things.

CAMBRIDGE HIGH & LATIN SCHOOL

DIARY FOR 1938-1939

Dear Diary:

Back once more we roamed the now familiar halls and crannies, we searched for elusive homerooms amid a gale of greetings and welcoming shouts. We had our first taste of politics and school government in the elections following a hard fought campaign which resulted in the following students being elected:

President	Edward O'Rourke
Vice-President	James Sellers
Secretary	Lena Smerlas
Treasurer	Joseph Harrington

Several very efficient committees were elected also.

In this year our class enthusiastically supported our first informal dance, which was held at the Hotel Commander.

Ready to help us in every way, ready to guide our footsteps in the choice of courses for our next and final year, aiding us in planning our social functions, were Miss Driscoll and Mr. Danehy.

After struggling through nine months of study continually interrupted by the pounding of riveters and the smashing of girders, we once more received our final cards, this time bearing the coveted inscription "Senior."

DIARY FOR 1939-1940

Dear Diary:

Well, here we are in our last year; with college boards and graduation still ten months in the future, we started out at an easy pace. The first big event of the year was the class elections in which, after a multi-postered campaign, to coin a phrase, the following were elected:

President	Edward O'Rourke
Vice-President	Claude Henry
Secretary	John Randall
Treasurer	John Moriarty

In these same elections the ring, picture, and reception committees all emerged capably staffed.

Then came the G. A. A. and K. B. formals, which were well planned, carried out, and attended.

All the important events were written up in The Review, which had a very successful year, both financially and artistically. The two Review editors, Paul Richards and Craig Williams, accomplished some splendid work and added much to the fame and glory of the already renowned publication.

Barbara Gilbert also deserves laurels for winning the cup and the trip to Washington, D. C., in the finals of a greater Boston spelling bee. This cup, by the way, will grace our resplendent trophy case in the future.

Suddenly we were thrown into the midst of cramming for college boards. Studies and more studies were the order of the day and the night, too. But, in spite of this heavy studying, we managed to have our pictures taken, to attend the G. A. A. informal, to attend the Varsity Dance, and finally the Senior Reception. One of the highlights of the last half year was the Senior Drama excellently presented at Rindge. At this function, which included a dance, the K. B. girls sold candy to augment the K. B. scholarship fund. One of the most instructive and enjoyable extra classes for the girls was the Charm Class capably presided over by the personable and helpful Senior Dean of Girls, Miss McElroy.

Mr. Bramhall's personal understanding and friendly criticism were indeed great sources of help to us throughout the school year, and his vision and foresight in planning and compiling the Year Book were invaluable during the rushing times preceding graduation. Through all our high school days, we were guided by the warm friendship and generous counsel of Mr. Cleveland, our Headmaster. He was truly a friend of the student, for he went among us, talked with us, and helped us in every way. He did this as he has done for many years, and as we hope he shall, for many years to come.

The climax of our four years of high school life was graduation, at which all the students appeared in caps and gowns. These four years seem now to be an all too brief period in our lives, and it is with much regret that we close this, our diary. This Year Book will help to remind us of the idyllic days of our high school life and of the warm friendships with those whom we may never see again. But now we leave our diary for the individual pen.

William Stenzel,
James O'Connell.

DRAMATIC CLUB

President
Vice-President
Treasurer and Secretary

Joseph Connelly
Jean Shumway
Barbara Gilbert

Due to the double session of school the outlet for dramatic ability was small. Because there were few assemblies this year, the Dramatic Club had little opportunity to present school programs, so they turned to social activities. First we held an outing at Cedar Hill. Here after an enjoyable day, we gathered together around a camp fire at night and held a miniature talent night. Each member entertained the others with a variety of dialogues, songs and other acts which clearly displayed the wide range of talent in the club.

The next big social function of the club was the Christmas Party. Dancing was enjoyed in the midst of typical Christmas surroundings. Refreshments were provided and to prove there really is a Santa Claus, presents were distributed. We also enjoyed a play, "The Christmas Chimes," which was put on at the party.

Not entirely to neglect the original purpose for their existence, the Dramatic Club put on "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Cantabrigia Club for the Society of the Blind. This was appreciated to such an extent that the Society has extended to the club an invitation to produce a play for them each year.

So the Dramatic Club members of the class of 1940 bid a reluctant farewell to the Club and to the Cambridge High and Latin School. They

SENIOR DRAMA

March 29th the senior class presented Marjorie Carlton's version of "The Barretts," the story of the romance of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning. Barbara Gilbert was most convincing as the beautiful, willowy aesthete, Elizabeth Barrett. Charles Mulvey gave an outstanding performance as the exuberant, genial, young poet, Robert Browning. Emil Starr's characterization of Barrett, the tyrannical Victorian father, was splendid. Others in the cast were Bertha Humez as the beautiful and vivacious Henrietta, Elizabeth's sister; James Lawlor as young Octavius, Elizabeth's courageous, sensitive brother; Joseph Connelly as the dashing, attractive, pompous, but not overly intellectual Captain Surtees Cook, Henrietta's bashful swain; Paula Hillery as Arabella, Elizabeth's well-meaning sister; and Jack Moriarty, who as George, Elizabeth's other brother, convinced us that he can win acclaim in fields other than the track. Mary Haney was the witty, middle-aged Miss Mitford. Edward Pelletier was the charming John Kenyon, Elizabeth's uncle. Lillian Blakeley made a memorable role out of her short part of Milly, the maid, and Ruth Twomey as Wilson, gave a very fine performance.

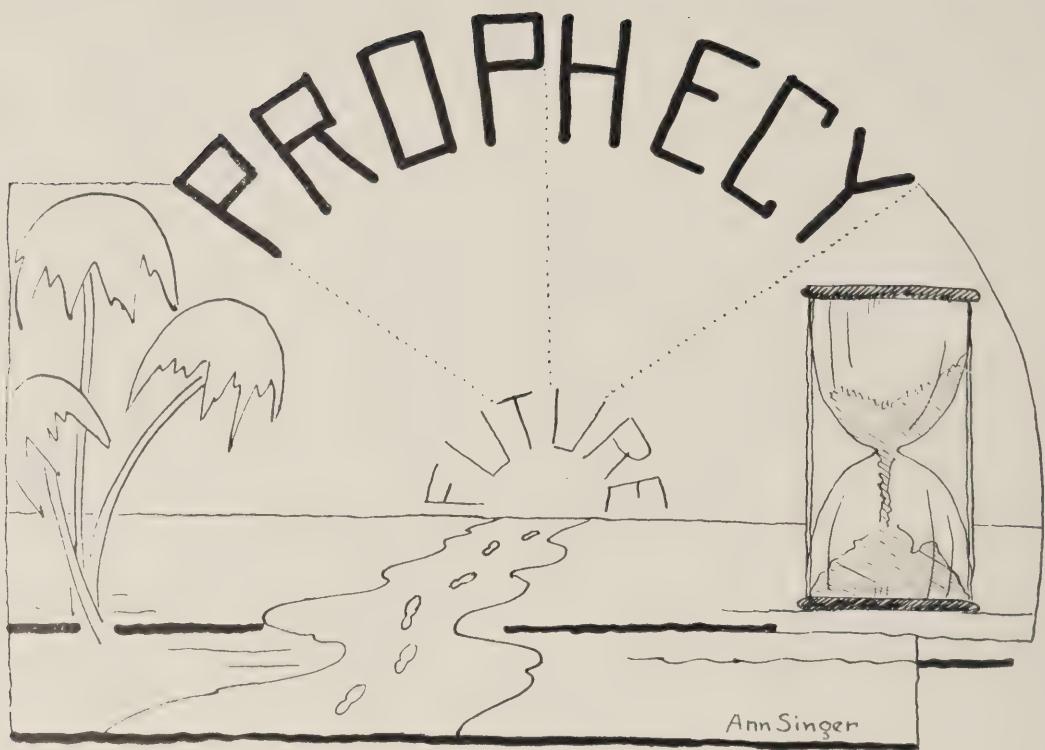

The play was under the able direction of our genius of drama, Miss Lillian Hartigan, who spent her time and energy generously to give us seniors something we'll long remember, "The Barretts."

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, this is John Bragga, of CHLS, bringing you the day's news.

Pitcairn Island: Phillip Baird, U. S. Ambassador to Pitcairn Island, who recently published a book entitled, "The Psychology of the Metabolism of the Subconscious Mind," today announced by carrier pigeon that he had found on Pitcairn Island the loot of the notorious pirate, Albert Miller. "The loot consisted," said the pigeon, "of three toothpicks, sterilized, two bottles of perfume, two pieces of chalk, and the sixteenth page of an English Book."

New York, New York: Doctor James Lawlor, Conductor of the Philadelphia Philharmonic Orchestra, brought with him from Europe the famous Italian contralto, Signora Loretta Ciani. The Signora said, on setting foot on American soil, "I am sooo happee to beee back in the countree in wheech I spent my high school days." With Signora Ciani was her personal companion, Miss Irene Christopher, who with the Signora, graduated in 1940 from Cambridge High and Latin School.

New York, New York: Bertha Humez, well-known Cambridge poetess, appeared last night on Information Please, along with John White, mathematics genius, and Marie Dong, authority on Oriental Art. This trio astounded the radio audience with their knowledge in all fields of learning and brought more fame to Cambridge High and Latin School, their Alma Mater.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Theodore Adelson, Paul D'Agostino, and Joseph Stokes, all prominent Boston criminal lawyers, have been retained by Robert Bozarkian. Bozarkian, reckless Cambridge man about town, known to intimates as "Playboy Bob," was arrested early this morning for exceeding the eight mile per hour speed limit in Hicksville, New Hampshire. Bozarkian said that he was returning from a business trip in West Virginia.

Boston Massachusetts: Barbara Gilbert and Arlene Goyette are appearing with Joseph Connelly in the play, "If Tomorrow Comes." These three famous stars of stage and screen are at the Moriarty Opera House in Boston; they're in the leading roles of the tragedy written by Tamara Polevoy.

PLUG
Emil Starr, president of the Starr Haircut and Whiffle Company, has announced a special today.

CAMBRIDGE HIGH & LATIN SCHOOL

Mr. Starr, commemorating his fifteenth whiffle anniversary, is offering you two whiffles for the price of one. Only two whiffles will be given to each person; all mail orders will be promptly filled by return mail.

"Hurry, get yours today!
Get rid of the hay!"

Flash! I just received a bulletin from the State House! Doctor E. J. O'Rourke, Governor of Massachusetts, has announced through his press agent, Joseph Goulart, that he will throw his wig into the presidential ring as a Whig candidate. The main planks in his platform will be longer hours, less pay, harder work, more strikes, 26 hour day, seven day week, 365 day year, except February which has 29, and ten year decade. The Governor, if elected, is expected to reinaugurate the "Spoils System." Governor O'Rourke gave up a career as a brilliant surgeon to enter the political battle field, where his talents are more appreciated.

Boston, Mass.: Mamie Stevens, Broadway torcher, will appear with Emerson Clarke and his orchestra on the Ritz Roof for a two-weeks' engagement. Nelson Waldman, manager of the Ritz, today informed us that the Ritz will feature in the future many such great artists, among whom will be Harold Feinstein and his clarinet, Alf Christoperson and his swinging strings, Bill Hebert and his "Rootie Toot Flute," and last but not least, Morty Bloch, featuring Mary Haney at the piano and Lucille Freniere at the sackbut.

Cambridge, Mass.: Paul Slepian, noted physicist, and Sir Phillip Strowman, Ph.D., LL.D., B.A., M.D., D.M.D., S.B., M.A., R.N., and X.Y., are lecturing tonight at M. I. T. These two men have promised to explode in this lecture Doctor Mason Charak's theory that  $1+1=2$ . These scientists have come all the way from the Arctic where they have been painting the North Pole.

Boston, Massachusetts: Muriel Mahady, Catherine McCarthy, and Marjorie Sears, Cambridge Socialite Social Workers, left this afternoon for South America. They will stop at Savannah, where they will pick up their leader, Lena Smerlas, and from Savannah they will proceed to the jungles of Nicaragua. In the wilderness they will endeavor to convert the refined, civilized natives.

Boston, Massachusetts: Jean Alden, Olive Graham, Virginia Turner, Claire Nugent, and Dorothy Le Shaine, will go to Atlantic City, where they will participate in a beauty contest, as representatives of beauty east of the Mississippi. It is expected that one of these girls will walk off with first honors in this worldwide beauty contest.

Chessnut, Vermont: Saul Goldstein will play against Samuel Ochlis in the semi-finals of the New England Chess Tournament. The winner will play Cyron Barber, the greatest chess genius of all time. It has been reputed that Barber derived his chess playing ability from some mystic Source by means of mental telepathy. The winner of the finals will receive from Miss June McConnell a gold chess set. Miss McConnell is a patroness of the arts, well-known for her work in encouraging blossoming Boston artists.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: James O'Connell, Cambridge woolgatherer and financier, and Frank LoPresti, professor of metaphysics, announced today that they have found a substitute for water. This substitute is only about 11 times as expensive as water and is expected to be placed on the market soon in tablet form.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Miss Jean Shumway, it was learned today, has sold her collection of match covers to the Boston millionaire, John Sheridan, for a sum believed to exceed $750,000. Miss Shumway says that her hobby of collecting match covers is all burned out.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Frank Radin, graduate of Harvard University, minima cum laude, today ceded his post as editor of the Cambridge Latinite to David Kaufman. Mr. Radin, who has been editor for the last eleven years, will go west to Chicago, where he has accepted another editorial position in a newspaper chain owned by James Gabriel.

Houston, Texas: Paul Butler, working in conjunction with his brilliant assistant, Miss Sarah Denaro, a short time ago discovered a new radio-active substance which he has named "Vecchiarelum," in honor of one of his classmates at C. H. L. S., Joseph Vecchiarello. Professor Butler is also the discoverer of Butlerite, the compound which is used for taking the squeaks out of shoes.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Marjorie Coleman and Merlyn Cook, will inaugurate a fashion program over this network. Beginning tomorrow morning you may hear, through the facilities of this station, the program entitled "Fashion + is?" Tune in to this program and get the latest reports on the latest fashions.

CAMBRIDGE HIGH & LATIN SCHOOL

Washington, D. C.: The F. B. I. announced that their two best under-cover operatives, Frank and Joseph Mallahan, would be placed on the Bentale gold case. Several weeks ago, as you know, Miss Ruthea Bentale was robbed of $16,000 worth of goldfish. Said the Mals: "We'll bring back the bacon, dead or alive."

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Miss Pauline Daltry complained to Cambridge police today that her butcher, Harold Krasnoff, sold her steak taken from a dead cow. Similar complaints have been brought against Mr. Krasnoff and it has been rumored that the D. A., Justin Williams, will take action.

Annapolis, Maryland: Rear Admiral Craig Williams and Chester Sargent, sailed from here early this morning with a crew of budding midshipmen on a cruise through the Pacific. Said Rear Admiral Williams, "We'll make soldiers of these men or at least policemen."

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Late last night at Cambridge City Hospital, Doctors Salvatore Mangano, Pericles Kassaris, and Robert Fishman performed a delicate cranial operation on Abraham Tekuzener. Mr. Tekuzener, a teacher at C. H. L. S. had a growth removed from his head. It was feared that after the five grueling hours necessary for the haircut, Mr. Tekuzener would demand a shampoo, but he was so anxious to leave that he left a tip.

Indianapolis, Indiana: Tom and Bob Croke, the two outstanding American race car drivers, today broke all standing race records on the course at Indianapolis; they also broke their necks, a minor matter to these boys, each of whom has broken his neck thirteen times in previous accidents. Having completed the 800 mile course in three hours, thirteen minutes, eleven and two-fifths seconds, the boys were just stepping up to the judges' stand, when they tripped on their shoe laces, breaking their necks, both in the same instant. Remember, they are twins and twins stick together through thick and thin.

New Orleans, La.: The Women's Temperance League of New Orleans elected officers for the last half of this year. Miss Miriam Harney was chosen chairman, and Miss Elizabeth Harrington was placed in charge of field operations, Miss Harney is the former national marble playing champion.

PLUG

ATTENTION! On Monday morning, Sophie Survillas and Natalie Tupper will open a modern up-to-date beauty shop in the Central Square Building. For their opening special the girls will feature the Tsanggos Cream Treatment, guaranteed to give you that peaches and cream complexion.

Boston, Massachusetts: Felicia Lukaszewicz, who writes the book review column on the Boston Square, will review, in tomorrow's paper, Ann Najarian's new book, "Behold the Man." Miss Najarian has four times won the Resendes prize for writing the best book of the year.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: James Sheedy, local fish-market proprietor, was robbed late last night of eleven cents and three mills. The robber overlooked the $600 which Mr. Sheedy had hidden in a secret compartment of his class ring. When Sheedy came out of his coma, he startled the world with the unusual statement,

"I've been robbed."

Boston, Massachusetts: Charles Burgess, Boston theatre owner, today ceded to Miss Esther Arvidson the ownership papers of the Prebensen Theatre. Miss Arvidson won the theatre in the annual Burgess theatre raffle, in which the philanthropist Charles Burgess gives away to the winner one of his many theatres.

Chicago, Ill.: Miss Virginia Bench, stage star, will present her version of Mary and Wessex at the Demas Theatre. In the role of Mary will be Miss Bench herself; in the role of Wessex will be Arthur Tisdale. The play is the Dobrovolsky prize play written by Miss Eva Hegemann, well-known American playwright. It has been drawing capacity audiences throughout the U. S., and it is expected that it will break all box office records in Chicago.

Brookline, Massachusetts: The Longwood Cricket Club added to its roster of champions today the names, Sue Jones and Charlotte Knight. These two girls defeated the Pacific coast champions, Ellen Sullivan and Nancy Hudson, in the semi-finals of the women's doubles championship tournament. Day after tomorrow the winners will meet Elizabeth Jones and Janet Walters who won their semi-finals yesterday.

Attention Kiddies: Would you like a pony—a pony all for yourselves? Mr.

CAMBRIDGE HIGH & LATIN SCHOOL

Jackson Walter, Cambridge good will promoter, is giving away seventeen to the boys and girls who write the best letters on "The explanation of the fifth dimension." So, kiddies, tear off the roof of daddy's car and send it together with six mills and your entry to the Jackson-Walter Pony Contest Bureau, Room 17, Sellers Building, Boston, Massachusetts. Who knows? You may be a lucky winner!

Boston, Massachusetts: Miss Eos Spiropoulos today added to her staff of the "Women's Away From Home Companion," the well-known name of Mary Farrell. Miss Farrell is to write the column, "Chemistry in the Home."

San Francisco, California: The Ballet Schmorgasbord, featuring Sadako Sato and Rita Rothfarb, will appear at the Hilaire Opera House in San Francisco for a week's engagement. The Ballet's publicity agent, Harvey Thomas, has been seen around Boston lately and it is rumored that the Ballet will come to Boston in a short time. However, there has been no confirmation of this rumor by Mr. Thomas.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Barbara Edison, private secretary to multi-millionaire Robert Navien, informed us that she will publish volume 8 in her "Memoirs of a Private Secretary." The first seven volumes met with great success and equal success is expected to attend this eighth volume.

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Miss Mary Feeley, Dean of the Feeley Finishing School, today announced the appointment of three teachers to her staff. They are Bernice Goldberg, Latin; Gertrude Hawkes, Algebra; and Antoinette Freni, French. The Feeley Finishing School is rated as the best finishing school in the United States.

Zambombi, Africa: Rose O'Rourke and Dorothy Petitto, famous explorers, were found last week in the tiny village, captives of the fierce Mongolian natives who inhabit this part of darkest Africa. They were found by Ardella Morrison, leader of an exploration of the Bohmuller Zoological Association. The two captives were unharmed.

Cystotaenia, Amnesia: Jacqueline Lane, American newspaperwoman, today landed her plane in this Amnesian village. Miss Lane is on a good-will tour of Amnesia, and has been flying around the country in her airship. On her journey homeward, Miss Lane intends to visit the country of Microcosmia, where plans are now being made for a monster reception in her honor.

Skloohatchie, North Dakota: Fire today destroyed the Skloohatchie factory of the White-Collins Safety Pin Company. Harry White and Jerry Collins, owners of the factory, claim that damage will exceed $700,000. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin, and will be investigated, according to a statement given by Fire Chief John Randall.

Fairbanks, Alaska: Claude Henry, athlete-baritone, will give a soiree for the benefit of the native Eskimos who live in Fairbanks. Mr. Louis Solomos, mining expert, will give a lecture on "How to Build an Igloo." Mr. Henry said that whatever money was taken in through voluntary contribution will be given for the increase of the Eskimo Loan Fund.

THE REVIEW

This year, the Review completed its fifty-fourth successful publication, winning second honors in the competition of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. As well as trying to maintain the fine literary standard of former years, the editors have attempted to increase still further the interest of the magazine to the school as a whole. Thus freshman and sophomore contributions have been strongly encouraged and many of these were printed. An attempt was also made to establish an Alumni Column which should furnish the upper class members with information concerning friends who had graduated before them.

The number of subscriptions and advertisements was also materially increased and an entirely new plan devised whereby the members of the graduating class may remain supporters of the Review for some time to come. According to this plan, a senior, upon payment of one dollar, will receive the Review of the coming year and will have his name appear upon a list of permanent sponsors. It is hoped that in this way the scope of the Review may be materially increased and the alumni may keep more closely in touch with the activities of those whom they left behind to carry on where they left off.

The Review Staff wishes to express to its faculty advisors, Miss Kelley and Mr. Higgins, its most sincere appreciation for their help, without which the success attained this past year would have been truly impossible.

K. B.

All K. B. graduating members, I know, will always look upon this last year with fond remembrance.

Activities came to a successful beginning with a supper for the older members which they themselves prepared at the home of Marjorie Sears. After much dancing and playing, the reunited members separated with plans to meet again for a lunch at Howard Johnson's which was, later, greatly enjoyed by all.

Activities for new members began with initiation, an experience which, I am sure, no girl will ever forget. Later on in the evening, the girls enjoyed themselves dancing and eating refreshments, which we assure you, are always very delicious and greatly appreciated.

In the fall, K. B. members, athletically inclined, took great pleasure in horseback riding, while other girls visited the Palace of Mrs. Jack Gardener in the Fenway, eager to see all and miss nothing of its beauty and magnificent art.

However, the most gala affair of all, the one which I am sure will always linger in the memory of every girl, was the K. B. formal, a very successful dance, which was held at the Hotel Commander on January 12. In the lovely, balloon-decked hall, handsome couples danced to the Viennese waltzes and jitterbug numbers of Hal Drake and his orchestra. Thus, everybody enjoyed himself and the curtain came down once more on another successful K. B. formal. Also, during the winter months, when the snow lay piled up at Fresh Pond, the girls enjoyed toboggan parties, and, later in the evening, refreshments, served at the members' homes.

Another experience which the girls will not forget was the selling of candy by the K. B. members at the Senior Drama to increase our scholarship fund, already begun by the returns of the formal. To increase this fund, little bead dolls were made at the homes of the members at our Saturday night meetings. These small, attractive, colorful dolls were a great success, for soon, many Cambridge Latin students proudly displayed one on his lapel. These little beaded people actually took the school by storm.

Later, a progressive supper was held at the homes of some K. B. members.

And now all K. B. members are looking forward to a barn dance which is to take place later on in the spring. This, we are sure, will prove to be a very successful and gala affair. To bring the year to a successful close, a beach party will be held at which the officers for next year will be elected.

All the K. B. members wish to thank Miss McElroy and Miss Buckley for their splendid guidance and cooperation. And now Eva Hegemann, our president, and Marjorie Sears, secretary and treasurer, lead us in our last goodbye to the Cambridge High and Latin School.

DURRELL DEBATING SOCIETY

The Durrell Debating Society has just finished another active year in debating. The team was under the capable supervision of Miss Margaret Breau. The officers of the club during the year were:

President	John Moriarty
Vice-President	Harry Oster
Secretary	Phillip Baird
Treasurer	George Sokol

Besides our old rivals of East Boston and Chelsea, the boys this year have debated with Traipe Academy, Portland High and Bangor High, Maine, and Windsor High, Vermont.

Those who participated in the debates this year were Phil Baird, Win Holland, George Sokol, Harry Oster, Bob Caswell, and Jack Moriarty.

The Durrell Prize Debate held in the Latin School Hall on Thursday evening, April 25, served as the climax of the season. The subject of the debate was Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Own and Operate the Railroads. The Negative Team, composed of Win Holland, Phil Baird and George Sokol, won the debate. As a result of this splendid conquest they had their names placed on the Durrell Trophy. The Best Speaking Award, the Durrell Medal, went to John Moriarty of the Affirmative Team, who showed not only a splendid understanding and knowledge of the question but also effective ability in rebuttal, voice, and diction.

It would be impossible to close the debating season without expressing a word of thanks to Mr. Cleveland who has helped on all occasions with his inspiration and guidance in order to make the year a success, and to Miss Breau, our coach, for her hard work, splendid leadership, and sympathetic understanding.

Those of us who are seniors and are leaving the team are sorry to go, but feel that the remaining three will serve as an excellent nucleus for next year's team and carry on for another year.

John Moriarty, President.

CHESS NOTES

For the fifth year in succession the C. H. L. S. Chess Club remained undefeated, although there have been several tie matches. Among the schools played were Boston Latin, Brookline High, Huntington Preparatory School, Rindge Technical School, and Roxbury Memorial High.

Thomas Burke, the first board player in this school, who won state-wide recognition for C. H. L. S. by being runner up in the Massachusetts Interscholastic Chess Tournament for high school students, is now the champion of the high school players in the state, by winning this year's tournament with twelve straight victories.

A league of the six teams, including C. H. L. S. and the above mentioned schools, was formed with Thomas Burke elected President. In league matches so far this year, C. H. L. S. has defeated Rindge Technical School, and had a tie with Boston Latin. Mr. Sullivan, the Faculty Advisor of the Club, was elected to the Advisory Council of the league.

The officers for the current year were: Thomas Burke, President; Henry Jezierski, Vice-President; Cyron Barber, Secretary; Samuel Ochlis, Treasurer.

The members of the Chess Club were greatly grieved at the passing of Mr. Bliss, who had done very much to build up the interest in Chess in this school. Even after we have left, the Club will always be inspired by the memory of this fine man.

Cyron Barber, '40.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Another year has drifted by, leaving in our memories the many happy moments we spent in the social and athletic activities of the Girls' Athletic Association. From the day we first paid our dues as timid freshmen up to the present day as confident seniors, the G. A. A. has been a source of added pleasure and enjoyment. We can never forget the initiation we experienced as freshmen; we were proud then to display four different colored bows in our hair, wear socks that didn't match, and even click our heels together and bow to G. A. A. officers.

The gay atmosphere of the Costume Parties, the Masquerade, Valentine Party, or Old Fashioned Dance, will always be remembered, while the novelty of the "Boy Girl Dance" will be inseparably linked with our gala times at C. H. L. S.

The annual G. A. A. Formal was extremely important in providing enjoyment to the members as well as their beaux. The feminine charm of the girls contrasted greatly with the uniform simplicity of gym-suits. This year a "Beau" of the Ball was chosen by the patrons and patronesses. The lucky young man was none other than Francis (Frank) Henry, a senior, who was presented with a silver key ring by the president, Genevieve Herlihy, his partner.

The G. A. A. Sport Hop and the picnic held annually at Kendall Green are the closing events of a memorable and successful year.

Hiking was made a prominent sport this year, with bicycling coming out in front with the spring sports.

Four seniors, Genevieve Herlihy, Marjorie Coleman, Mary Feeley, and Lena Smerlas leave office this year; however, they do so with the feeling that they have fulfilled their duty in trying to make someone else happy.

We are deeply grateful for the advice of Miss Brown, faculty advisor, whose unselfish efforts have added greatly to the name of G. A. A.

SENIOR TEAM

Back Row: Miss Brown, M. Blacquier, M. Brown, S. Upshaw.

Front Row: J. Robertson, A. Galvin, V. Januszewska, S. Survilas, Captain, H. Suckiel, I. Sigalos, S. Dobrovolsky.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

The class 1940 is especially fortunate in having a hard working, enthusiastic group of girls composing its senior team.

During their four years of playing, they have proved themselves outstanding, under the competent leadership of their coach, Miss Brown. In their junior year, they won the championship of all the classes, thereby winning the much prized silver basketballs. They have also won more than half their games played with Waltham, Needham, Somerville, and Medford.

Under the buoyant leadership of Sophie Survilas, the captain, the team has shown a social interest in renewing the Basketball Luncheon which is held for all basketball girls, including the alumnae. It proved very successful this year at a Howard Johnson's restaurant, with Anna Galvin giving the prophecy and Jean Robertson acting as toastmaster. The banquet was a happy climax to four brilliant years of very successful and enjoyable basketball playing.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year the Varsity Basketball Team, with Myrtle Brown as captain, could be composed only of sophomores and seniors, in fact, practically the senior team. Two games were played, one with Somerville, and one with the graduates.

SWIMMING TEAM

Front Row: A. Fay, Manager Coleman, President Feeley, M. Shea, M. White.

SWIMMING

The swimming classes certainly started with a splash this year with a larger and more enthusiastic group of girls than any former year.

Patiently Mr. Perduyne worked with us, helping us to improve our form and speed. Soon, we were able to swim without sounding like the racing steam engines that forty yards of racing produced at first. Mr. Perduyne, stop watch in hand, would run up and down the sides of the pool while we madly kicked and splashed to beat the record of the girls before us.

After much faithful practising, an inter-class swimming meet was held which was enjoyed by many spectators, especially some very noisy seniors who cheered Mary Feeley on to the victory for the senior class.

We accepted a meet with Somerville and happily, after much hard swimming, we won the meet. Later, in a meet with Malden, Melrose, Somerville, and Medford, our team ranked third.

We hope next year to engage in more meets and to be even more successful than this year.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Back Row: Powers, Hooker, O'Brien, Moriarty, Mallahan, Bussey, O'Connor, Doyle, Meehan, Kennedy.

Middle Row: Coach, Mr. Elcewicz, Grande, Henry, Carter, H. Boudreau, R. Boudreau, McManus, St. Hilaire, Bonsignore, Asst. Coach, Mr. Frisoli.

FOOTBALL

The Cambridge Latin football team did not meet with great success this season but showed improvement under a new, capable coach, Mr. Elcewicz. Mr. Elcewicz did a fine job in his first year and should produce a well-drilled, winning team next year with the returning material.

The football team this year scored two wins, beating Belmont and Chelsea and tying Newton. This team deserved a much better season, but had bad luck and lost several games in the closing minutes because of lack of subs, which was a great handicap. Despite many handicaps the team showed fine spirit and at times played inspired football. They were never outfought.

The line was inexperienced but as the season progressed they improved and showed prospects of a great line for the coming fall. The line showed particularly well in the later games against Lawrence, Rindge, and Wakefield. Outstanding in the line were Herlihy, Makris, and Magnusson with Doyle and Babajtis being rewarded with the captaincy for their fine play. In the backfield, Capt. Randall and Henry were outstanding. Capt. Randall made several honorable mentions on all-scholastic teams.

Letters were awarded to the following: Capt. Randall, Doyle, Herlihy, Magnusson, Babajtis, Zoodorian, Bonsignore, R. Boudreau, H. Boudreau, Henry Latanowich, O'Connor, Coffey, Makris, Mullen, Moriarty, Powers, McManus, and Kennedy.

BASEBALL TEAM

Center Row: Mr. Foley, Mahoney, McGrail, Coffey, McMann, Harrington, Reardon, Henry, Zoodorian, Jones, Coolahan, Babajtis, Doolin, McCool, Whelan, Coach Foley.
Front Row: Butler, Ryan, Paratore, Boudreau, Latanowich, Co-Captain Powers, Co-Captain Randall, Fox, Makris, O'Dea, Brown, Young, Cristello.

BASEBALL

The outlook for this year's baseball team is bright, with a fine nucleus of last year's team returning. Coach Sonny Foley, who has done a great job as coach, should mould together another outstanding team with the veteran material he has on hand.

In the infield are several veterans: John Powers, an experienced catcher, has worked for two years behind the plate. Bernie Fox at first is a good hitter; John Randall at second will be playing his fourth year with the team; Russ Boudreau has played ball at short; and to round out the infield either Butler or McManus will hold down third base. In the outfield only one veteran is returning and the coach has to find two capable outfielders. George Makris is the lone outfielder returning. In the pitching department there is a fine group, but they haven't had very much experience. Those whom Coach Foley is depending on are Doyle, Flannery, Babajtis, and Henry, and if these boys come through you can expect a winning team.

TRACK TEAM

Middle Row: Coach, Mr. Murphy, Scott, Stanewicz, Grande, McDevitt, O'Rourke, Filos, Smith, Fulginiti, Dr. O'Brien.

TRACK

When Coach J. V. Murphy called out this year's indoor track candidates, he found only three letter men available. They were G. Kennedy, C. Henry, and E. O'Rourke.

In dual meet competition the team lost by close decisions to Revere and Somerville and was badly defeated by Rindge, the State champs in our division. The relay team fared much better, however, winning the one lap relay and finishing second in the Seaboard relay carnival against Hyde Park and Revere. In this meet George Kennedy was invited to run in a special 600 yd. race against fine competition of five of the leading school-boy trackmen. He got off to a bad start but picked up, and finished fourth, in 1.18.

The following boys were consistent point scorers, and the prospects for a good out-door season are much brighter. They are: Bonsignore, Coffey, Cooke, Fulginiti, Henry, Horrigan, Kennedy, Mallahan, McManus, O'Rourke, and Smith.

MR. LEANDER A. MACDONALD

OUTDOOR TRACK TEAM

Third Row: D. Scott, Horrigan, Carter, Mallahan, O'Rourke, Mallahan, Shea, Bloomberg, Fillios, Corcoran.

Second Row: Mr. Foley, V. Smith, Chase, Smith, R. Scott, Fulginiti, Cook, Stanewicz, Gabriel, Bonsignore, Cote, Ford, Coach, Mr. Murphy.

HOCKEY TEAM

Back Row: Mr. Foley, Carter, McCauley, Reagan, Moriarty, Reardon, Cleary, Haley, Mahoney, Fitzgerald, Makris, Mallahan, Mulcahey.

HOCKEY

The hockey team this year started out with what looked like a good season. The team was well stocked with veteran material, who had plenty of experience, but as the season progressed, they met with disaster. The team was hit by ineligibility and injuries, losing practically the whole first team and its subs. Thus instead of a good season, the team met with only a moderate degree of success.

The hockey season started off well, Latin staying up around the top till they were hit by injury and then ineligibility. Latin defeated Medford in the opening game, then it tied Arlington and Rindge. It then lost two games to the league leaders, but it came back and defeated Belmont, thus reaching near the top. But after this, disaster struck and Latin lost the last four games. The season's record was two wins, two ties, and two defeats.

Those outstanding for Latin were Captain Powers, who played fine hockey and was our only all-scholastic player; Chick Meehan, who was a mainstay of the team and played so well throughout the season that he made the second team all-scholastic; and Bob Murphy, who played fine hockey throughout the season.

Letters were awarded to the following: Capt. Powers, Murphy, Meehan, Randall, McConley, Lyshorn, Fitzgerald, Makris, Reardon, St. Hilaire, Reagan, Cleary, Leary.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Back Row: Mr. Foley, Whalen, Macaro, Collins, Guilds, Fox, Bussey, Hayes, Wetmore, McMenimen, Culhane, Pero.

BASKETBALL

This year's basketball team did not meet with the success of previous teams, despite the fact that it had many veterans. This team had the experience necessary to be a winner but did not seem to click and the result in wins and losses was not good. There seemed to be lacking throughout the season that spirit which usually brings a team success.

Those who endeavored to make a winning team were: Captain Herlihy, who played fine ball throughout the season; Joe McGrail, who was an aggressive hard worker and also high scorer, while "Deacon" Doyle, Ed Bulger, and "Porky" Richards showed up well at times during the season.

The record for the season was poor, having only three wins and fourteen defeats. The outlook for next year should be brighter with a fine nucleus of last year's team returning.

Those receiving letters are: Captain Herlihy, Doyle, McGrail, Richards, Kelley, Bulger, O'Dea, Carson, and Fox.

We, the class of 1940, hereinafter known as the party of the first part, being of unsound mind but generous nature, do hereby make the following bequests:

The party of the first part leaves to the freshmen, hereinafter known as the party of the second part, any and all corridors on the first floor; more than this we do not leave, for the party of the second part, embracing the largest number of individuals, will take what it needs without consulting the upper classmen.

The party of the first part leaves to the sophomores, hereinafter known as the party of the third part, those mineral stones in the closet of room forty. To the party of the third part are also bequeathed the laconic skeleton hung near the physics room, and the adding machines in the office practice rooms, which adding machines are found to be very helpful in figuring out arithmetic problems.

The party of the first part leaves to the junior class, hereinafter known as the party of the fourth part, all rooms and corridors on the second floor, in addition to the excitements of the first class elections and the hot campaigns which usually precede the elections. To the party of the fourth part is further bequeathed the pleasure of probing the mysterious depths of the classical library, which is indeed a place of classic bearing, bearing produced by the staring of austere busts and the profound emanations of volumed tomes so well understood by the presiding genius of the library, Mr. Derry.

The party of the first part transmits to the senior class, hereinafter known as the party of the fifth part, the hall, and all the furniture therein, including:

- the piano
- the statues of Minny, Merky, and Dianamo
- the paintings

CAMBRIDGE HIGH & LATIN SCHOOL

all seats, which seats may be used for relaxing purposes only, and not for the storing of books, coats, etc., or anything belonging to the P. G.'s.

To the party of the fifth part is further entrusted the dark room and dumb waiter in the chemistry laboratory, as well as any chemicals necessary to make those accidental smells that haunt the school after sulphur experiments.

By far the best of the gifts left to the party of the fifth part is the new school which will be ceded to the seniors in all its glory. The rooms and equipment in this new school may be apportioned in accordance with the will of the aforesaid seniors.

To the school in general, the party of the first part bequeaths a series of movies to be shown in the new auditorium, broken films, faulty projectors and all. Also is given to the school in general any and all lockers, which are to be used as lockers and not as warehouses and hiding places for bicycles, stray dogs, and athletic equipment.

We hereby warn each and every pupil to beware of the various vicious drinking fountains, which fountains have been known to leap up at and drench the unsuspecting drinker.

In witness whereof, we, the party of the first part, have set our hands and seals unto this, our last will and testament, on this fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty.
